

Board Member of Distinction

The Board Member of Distinction Award is an outstanding member of the governing board of a LeadingAge Ohio member organization.

Criteria

The individual receiving this award must currently serve on the board of a LeadingAge Ohio member organization and demonstrate the following:

- Uses his/her time, talents and resources to go beyond member expectations
- His/her commitment has helped the organization to excel through contributions of creative and innovative strategic plans
- Significant contribution to well-being of seniors and others that the organization serves
- Community support and/or representation with regular promotion of the organization in the community

Application Questions for Board Member of Distinction

Q1: Summarize the key points of this award nomination. In a nutshell, what do you most want the judges to know about this nominee? (200-word limit)

Q2: How has this individual's contributions improved the outcomes for the organization? That is, how have they helped the organization excel. Give examples of creative or strategic planning; examples of positive times and challenging times. (600-word limit)

Q3: How does this board member stand out amongst other board members; that is, how they promote the organization in the greater community. Give examples. (600-word limit)

Q4: Provide a brief description of the award candidate's present organization (mission, size, scope of services, persons served). (200-word limit)