VIRTUAL LOBBY WEEK: ADVOCACY TRAINING

Join Ohio Senate Finance Chair Matt Dolan, Ohio House Finance Chair Scott Oelslager, and the LeadingAge Ohio policy team to discuss the important role advocates have in informing policymakers as they head into the SFY2022-23 budget process. Older Ohioans and their caregivers continue to rely on Medicaid support for services like adult day, PASSPORT, and assisted living waiver. This year, the COVID-19 pandemic poses new challenges and opportunities for aging service providers and policymakers.

Attendees will learn about Ohio's biennial budget process, with particular attention on how advocates can inform and intervene in the process. They will also hone skills and learn strategies for getting the most out of their advocacy engagements. Advocates will then have the opportunity to put these skills to work in virtual meetings with legislators.

Presented by:

Senator Matt Dolan, JD, Ohio Senate Finance Chairman
Representative Scott Oelslager, JD, Ohio House Finance Chairman
Susan Wallace, MSW, LSW, Chief Policy Officer, LeadingAge Ohio
Patrick Schwartz, BA, Director of Strategic Communications, LeadingAge Ohio
